

To whom it my concern

Q LINK requires the services of a passionate and qualified individual to expand its dynamic team for enhancement of services to the clients.

Position: Software Engineer

Location: Pretoria East

Available: As soon as possible.

Contract: Permanent with a probation period

Remote working: Hybrid (3 days a week remote)

Working hours: 08h00 – 17h00

Offer: Market related

Reference: Q2023008

Job Purpose:

Responsible for designing and developing software. Creates tests, evaluates software applications and systems to make systems function.

Role Responsibilities:

- Develop software according to specification and design parameters.
- Work alone or with employees to specify user/system interfaces.
- Diligently provide documentation on all software that has been developed.
- Assist in the specification of documentations in alignment with company standards.
- Successfully obtain or create diagnostic data to assist in the investigation and resolution of problems.
- Ensure that existing problems and known errors in systems and services are being attended to and escalated.
- Assist with system testing in line with project parameters.
- Unit test each unit of code to confirm expected results are achieved by the unit.
- Investigate user requirements for a computer program for system software.
- Define the structure of a computer program for system software.
- Develop a software solution for an application, using an OOP language.

Preferred Requirements:

- A good understanding of Object orientation programming languages such Python and C#
- Sound knowledge on Databases and strong skills in SQL
- Experience in Cloud-based development and Event driven Architecture with a sound understanding of .Net Core will be beneficial
- Minimum 3 years' experience in a similar role.
- Formal qualification in a relevant subject such as computing, computer science, information technology, software development or software engineering.

Personality Attributes:

- Take pride in your work.
- Very good communication and interpersonal skills.
- Willing to learn from other team members and value feedback.

- Ability to handle multiple assignments.
- Attention to detail.
- Ability to meet deadlines and handle priority changes as circumstances dictate.
- Strong problem-solving skills.

CVs can be send to: hr@qlink.co.za

Q LINK will only be in contact with shortlisted candidates. If you have not received feedback within 3 weeks after the closure of the advertisement, then please consider your application unsuccessful in this instance.